SEPTEMBER 2018

Complex nose of autumn flowers, wild berries and plums with just a hint of balsamic character. This is a concentrated Gattinara with a ton or ripe tannins and a long, mineral finish. Drink or hold. – J.S.

APRIL 2018

A dense, tightly wound version, offering cherry, plum, leather, tar and tobacco flavors. Long and saturated with flavor, backed by a layer of beefy tannins. Be patient. Best from 2020 through 2032. – B.S.

...Snappy cherry and strawberry flavors balanced by notes of earthy tobacco and subtle anise. Scents of rose petals and mint add aromatic lift, and the fruit flavors resonate with freshness and energy, suggesting they will keep pace as the tannins soften over the next several years. – S.J.

DECEMBER 2018

Aromas of eucalyptus, exotic spice, underbrush and aromatic herb lead the nose. The tightly knit palate offers cranberry, dried cherry, star anise and clove set against taut, close-grained tannins. – K.O.
