

TRAVAGLINI

GATTINARA RISERVA DOCG 2011

Piedmont, Italy

93

POINTS

SEPTEMBER 2017

Attractive aromas of rose, wild berry and aromatic herb lead the nose on this elegantly structured red. The bright palate offers crushed raspberry, juicy dark cherry, licorice and clove alongside firm polished tannins. A flinty mineral note energizes the finish. – K.O.

93

POINTS

OCTOBER 2017

A red with complexity and powerful with lemon rind, cedar, dark berry and light leather character. Full body, round and silky. Gorgeous now. – J.S.

91

POINTS

AUGUST 2017

...A structured wine with layered tones of black fruit, spice, licorice and campfire ash. There is a floral element of pressed rose petals that appears with delicate intensity at the back. In the mouth, this wine offers power and good structure. – M.L.

90+

POINTS

JUNE 2018

The 2011 Gattinara Riserva is going to need at least a few years in bottle ... That should allow the aromatics to release a bit more... there is solid potential. – A.G.

90

POINTS

DECEMBER 2017

...Shows the warmth of the growing season in its ample alcohol and baked plum notes, while herbal flavors bring out classic notes of truffle and dried leaves along with the hint of iron characteristic of Gattinara's volcanic soils. – S.J.