This is awash in dark açai berry, blueberry and blackberry puree flavors, with sweet tapenade, tobacco and floral notes checking in as well. Lush overall, but with ample buried grip and a bolt of iron on the finish... —J.M.

The Black-fruit aromas of this stunning Cornas are enveloping... So sophisticated and silky, this glides over your palate, thanks to the nearly perfect integration of tannins, fruit and generous body. Very long and refined finish that pulls your hand inexorably back to the glass... — J.S.

The 2019 Cornas la Louvee reveals hints of toasty oak on the nose, accenting ripe cassis flavors. It's full-bodied, rich and concentrated, yet never seems heavy or overdone, finishing with flourishes of blueberries and dried spices on the long, long finish. - J.C.

...Appealingly sweet and expansive on the palate, offering sappy kirsch, boysenberry, salty olive and spicecake flavors that show sharp delineation and mineral cut. Polished tannins frame a mineral-accented finish that features lingering floral and spice notes. This is quite an elegant Cornas... -J.R.
