vinous

DECEMBER 2022

...Broad and energetic in the mouth, offering appealingly sweet and concentrated black and blue fruit, cola and spicecake flavors that steadily deepen through the back half. Delivers a solid, smoky punch on a strikingly long, smooth finish that's framed by smooth, well-knit tannins. Made from vines that are pushing 100 years of age.... -J.R.

APRIL 2022

Brimming with ripe forest-berry aromas, but also notes of smoked bacon and wild herbs, this is a stunning Cornas that's highly structured with a very concentrated core, but also bright and elegant, major stony minerality driving the long, very focused finish. – J.S.

APRIL 2023

Sleek and polished, with a bold cascade of blackberry confit, singed garrigue and warm fig, this is delicious and opulent yet powered by a savory undercurrent. Offers charred cedar that adds depth and roundness to the palate, while the pull of salt and crushed iron offsets the silky, dense character. This has staying power... —K.B.

JANUARY 2022

The 2020 Cornas les Ruchets shows less oak... from previous vintages, featuring sappy, red-toned fruit on the nose. It's medium to full-bodied, silky—not chunky or beefy—with a long, refined finish. – J.C.
