

PLANETA

FRAPPATO, VITTORIA DOC 2018

Sicily, Italy

EDITOR'S CHOICE

93

POINTS

JANUARY 2020

Aromas of strawberry, red cherry and white pepper follow over to the polished, savory palate, along with hints of smoke and pomegranate. It's silky and bright, with fresh acidity, making it incredibly delicious to enjoy now. —K.O.

91

POINTS

AUGUST 2021

A minerally red, with tangy saline and iron notes underscoring the dried cherry and raspberry fruit flavors. It's sleek and medium-bodied, with chewy tannins and a delicate mix of dried thyme and spiced orange peel accents emerging on the finish... — AN.

91

POINTS

JUNE 2021

Spiced cherries and sweet herbal tones... along with hints of white smoke. Its silky textures give way to a mix of red and black berries, while cooling minerals and acids add verve to an already vibrant expression. This stains the senses with fruit concentrate, yet remains fresh... — E.G.

91

POINTS

AUGUST 2020

Enticing aromas of fresh flowers and red berries lead into flavors of tart strawberry and raspberry and crunchy herbs. With exposure to air, the wine gains darker notes of tar and grilled game, balancing the bright fruit tones. — S.J.

91

POINTS

NOVEMBER 2019

Aromas and flavors of candied watermelon, together with white pepper and lemon rind. Light body. Fresh, clean finish. More like a dark rosé. Drink now. — J.S.