Mediterranean scrub, rose and wild berry aromas shape the fragrant nose. Smooth and savory, the linear palate delivers juicy Marasca cherry, pomegranate, clove and mineral notes suggesting saline. Polished tannins and fresh acidity lend lithe support. Drink 2023. — K.O.

TFS TASTING NOTE: Very expressive fruit with more complex aromatic elements of undergrowth, myrtle and oriental spices... A champion of drinkable red wine with marked savory flavor and a tasting profile produced by a ferrous touch, rhubarb and very evident black pepper.

...The 2018 Etna Rosso is a mid-weight red with smoky and tarry aromas that intermingle with red fruit, cassis and toasted almond. You also get blue flower and wild rose, but of course, those volcanic signatures are what gives this wine its compelling raison d'être. — M.L.
