OCTOBER 2019

...A lasting impression of volume and opulence thanks to stone fruit, vanilla cream and baked bread... Light and jazzy in terms of mouthfeel... also sweetness from Sicilian blood orange juice when it's freshly squeezed. – M.L.

NOVEMBER 2020

Lovely nose of ripe apricot and mango with cream and croissant. It's full-bodied and creamy, yet with good acidity and smoky minerality. Focused minerals and flint on the finish. This is a refined and focused chardonnay. Drink or hold. – J.S.

JUNE 2021

...A core of vibrant acids with tropical mango and kiwi balanced by salty minerals and inner herbal tones... hints of butterscotch and a citrus twang... A beautiful wine that bridges the old world and the new while remaining soulfully Sicilian. –E.G.

MARCH 2021

...Medium-bodied and well-knit, with a backbone of fine china-like acidity enlivening the plush notes of Jonagold apple, crushed hazelnut, lemon curd and poached apricot. Finely detailed on the lingering, spiced finish... –A.N.
