

FERRARI

BRUT NV

Trentino, Italy

91
POINTS
Wine Spectator
MARCH 2024

91
POINTS
Robert Parker
eRobertParker.com
FEBRUARY 2021

91
POINTS
WINE ENTHUSIAST MAGAZINE
APRIL 2021

91
POINTS
vinous
DECEMBER 2023

91
POINTS
JAMES SUCKLING.COM
JULY 2021

A refined and expressive sparkler in an aperitif style, this is bright and buoyant on the palate, with the fine, lacy mousse carrying a mouthwatering range of pineapple, mandarin orange peel and white cherry fruit, accented by ground ginger, white blossoms and fleur de sel...—A.N.

An Italian classic and a terrific value, ...opens to crystalline luminosity and brilliance. The bouquet is straight-forward and confident, delivering a clear and precise message of good cheer and easy-drinking appeal... Notes of citrus, white peach, breakfast pastry and drying notes of crushed mineral. The quintessential Italian aperitivo wine. —M.L.

Aromas of white spring flower, white orchard fruit and a whiff of brioche lead the way. On the crisp palate, an elegant perlage accompanies creamy yellow apple, pear and lemon drop. —K.O.

Distinctly savory... a blend of dusty dried flowers, cardamom and freshly sliced pears. It fills the palate with a silken bead of fine bubbles, taking on a salty-to-sweet sensation as tactile mineral tones mix with ripe orchard fruits. This finishes with admirable length and candied citrus twang, tapering off remarkably fresh... balance and complexity here... —E.G.

An immediately appealing sparkling wine, brimming with apple and lemon aromas, but also delicate yeasty and freshly baked white-bread notes. The creamy mousse complements the lively acidity very nicely and, in spite of the impression of lightness, the finish is long with a spot-on balance... —J.S.