JUNE 2019

Finely tuned on the nose, which suggests citrus, fresh herbs, rose stems and dried nutmeg. Medium-bodied on the palate, which is very subtle in its delivery of citrus and berries. Fine tannins. Drink in 2021. - J.S.

OCTOBER 2019

Subtle aromas of camphor, forest floor, wild herbs and blue flower lift out of the glass. On the smooth, juicy palate, notes of clove, white pepper and nutmeg accent a core of ripe black cherry. It's already approachable, but will offer several years of pleasure. Enjoy through 2023. - K.O.

DECEMBER 2019

The 2015 is fresh and lively in the context of the warm vintage, with flavors of red cherry, pomegranate and orange peel framed by light, raspy tannins. With its medium weight, it's ready to drink now, and it's well priced for by-the-glass programs. - S.J.
