NOVEMBER 2021

...Offers zesty blackberry and boysenberry flavors with a dramatic, almost salty, mineral backdrop... a delightfully svelte, perfumed red with penetrating berry flavors accented by hints of iron, rose petal and char. It's drinking beautifully now... through 2030 and hold much longer still. —A.I.

OCTOBER 2019

This has a very rich and attractively fleshy feel with dark berries and milk chocolate and a fine, dense and still drinkable finish. Drink now. — J.S.

APRIL 2020

...Silky and broad in the mouth, offering intense red and blue fruit liqueur, spicecake and floral pastille flavors that become sweeter as the wine stretches out. The floral note carries strongly through the expansive, spice-accented finish, which shows real energy and velvety, slow-building tannins. — J.R.
