

TRIMBACH

GRAND CRU GEISBERG - VIGNOBLE DU COUVENT DE RIBEAUUVILLÉ RIESLING 2014

Alsace, France

98

POINTS

JAMES SUCKLING.COM

SEPTEMBER 2015

Aromas of limestone and hints of earth. Wet morning forest floor. This is from the vineyards of the convent of Ribeauvillé. This has been made separately since 2009. All organically farmed. Only 8.5 hectares total with Trimbach as four. The Montrachet of Alsace? – J.S.

93+

POINTS

Robert Parker.com

JUNE 2017

...Opens with a clear, ripe and intense, well-concentrated and complex bouquet with crushed stone, lemon peel and herbal aromas. Full-bodied, juicy, intense and piquant, with good concentration and complexity, this is a full-bodied, dense and persistent Riesling with firm, yet still somewhat austere tannins and good acidity. – S.R.

93

POINTS

Wine Spectator

WEB ONLY 2017

A classic version, with a petrol- and spice-laced nose, steely acidity and finely meshed notes of Honeycrisp apple, preserved lemon, yellow peach and pine forest. Long, sleek finish. To be released October 2019. Drink now through 2030. – A. N.

91

POINTS

vinous

FEBRUARY 2016

Intense licorice and stone fruit aromas on the rich, ripe nose. Enters the mouth rich and round, then turns brighter and fresher, offering hints of ripe tropical fruits and honey. Finishes showy and long, with hints of minerals and clover honey. – I.D.