This is broad and luscious, with a vivid gold color and inviting aromas of honey, sliced almonds and yellow peaches. On the palate white peaches and tangy apples take over to balance out the wine's considerable richness in mouth-feel. Drink or hold. - J.S.

Apple cider, stone fruits, jasmine and loam aromas are perked up by lemon and lime nuances. Big, deep and dense but with bracing acidity, giving shape to the licorice and loam flavors. The long finish features hits of pear compote and pepper... a suggestion of apple cider. - I.D.
