NOVEMBER 2019

The overlay of dried violets, lavender and spices works very well with the more overt vanilla and tar notes. Soft and plummy with ripe tannins and plenty of concentration, but there's a fine line of bright acidity within the texture. Drink now. – J.S.

OCTOBER 2019

...Exuberant precision and charm... Packed tight with dark fruit, tobacco, spice, bacon fat and even a touch of bitter chocolate. Both Syrah and Sicily love the sunshine and the summer heat, and luckily, both of these things were delivered with abundance in this happy vintage. – M.L.

JUNE 2021

...Dark, brooding and earthy in the glass, with notes of dark chocolate, peppery herbs and hints of tobacco. It leans more toward savory than sweet, as black fruits, exotic spices and minerals settle in. Grippy tannins slowly sneak in and clench the senses with youthful poise... – E.G.

OCTOBER 2021

An enticing red, with an expressive range of pureed black cherry and mulberry fruit flavors that show accents of black licorice, tea rose and sweet smoke. Chewy tannins and fresh acidity are well-integrated, lending weight and definition to this harmonious version...–A.N.

This 100% Syrah opens with aromas of darkskinned berry, mocha and thyme. The smooth, dense palate offers black-currant jam, black pepper and clove alongside velvety tannins. –K.O.
