The purity and beauty to this is very pretty with crushed berries, lilac, cranberries and hints of slate. Full-bodied yet very tight and every so polished. The tannins melt into the wine. Drink or hold. – J.S.

Aromas and flavors of blackberry, flint and powdered rocks. Fresh, clean and pretty, displaying savory nuances and polished tannins on the fresh, long finish. Already showing lovely balance, and it will no doubt develop well in the bottle. – I.D.
