NOVEMBER 2020

The greatest Clos Ste. Hune ever? The beauty and elegance of this very youthful Alsace dry riesling masterpiece are literally breathtaking. Very subtle white-peach character, great concentration and such finesse at the extremely long, precise finish. However, you'll need to be patient... will need many years to reach its ravishing peak. Made from organically grown grapes... – J.S.

...Pure, tell-tale chamomile tincture lift is incisive, transporting crushed tansy. The acidity strikes first: linear, clear-cut, pristine, sharp as a Japanese blade, uncompromising and taut, followed not by fruit but by herbal savor and limestone coolness. Imagine stones saturated with fresh, cool tisane of chamomile and yarrow, laced with saltiness, edged with a touch of pepper, intense and concentrated. The finish is like a cooling, intense, ethereal balm. (Bone-Dry) -A.K.
