TRIMBACH

CLOS STE. HUNE RIESLING 2012

Alsace, France

DECEMBER 2018

Very cool, delicate and floral with daring elegance ... very long finish marked by chalky minerality. The way that it literally blossoms in the glass after half an hour suggests that this master-piece has at least a couple of decades of life ahead of it. – J.S.

Wine Spectator

WEB 2017

This sleek, elegant white crackles with acidity. Showing more petrol and mineral character than white peach, spice and pine notes, but the density and length should make this a superstar of the cellar. –A.N.

OCTOBER 2015

One can find as much energy and tension as in an electric power station. The wine is very clear, fresh and pure, shows lots of salt on the very elegant and seductive palate. The finish is very long and complex... a terrific aging potential. – S.R.

Decanter

MARCH 2018

Arguably Alsace's most highly regarded Riesling, ...the palate is fresh and lean, linear and pure. It's very concentrated, with good weight of fruit supported by firm underlying acidity. Beautifully balanced and very long. – S.B.

APRIL 2015

Scents of green apple, ginger, white peach, lemon and smoke. Quite brooding today but already conveys sneaky concentration to its rich, gingery stone fruit and fusel flavors. Finishes dense and rich, but fresh, harmonious acidity and a saline edge keep the wine light and lively. – I.D.
