Brilliant stuff. Stunning bouquet of peach, toast, smoke and mineral. Almost dry, this Alsace white is full-bodied yet has a sense of elegance and harmony and shows no sign of fading. The panoply of petrol, spice and citrusy marmalade flavors is buoyed by the firm structure and lingers, with a smoky note, on the aftertaste. — BS

...A heavenly nose of honeysuckle, clementine and hints of wild honey, later joined by tinned apricots and hints of marzipan, all delivered with scintillating precision. The palate feels quite rich, but the acidity effortlessly counterbalances its precocity... There is so much energy and raciness ... begs you back for one sip after another... — N.M.

The 1989 Clos Ste Hune Hors Choix Vendage Tardive is almost orange colored with ripe and dried apricot flavors; it is very precise and fresh, nicely concentrated, intense and very elegant. Really elegant and piquant, with grip and lots of salt, long and tension-filled. Great expression. — S.R.
