This has great vitality. The more air it gets, the more candied-citrus, pear and dried-herb aromas emerge; The wine's frame is on the sleek side, there's serious concentration. The finish is very long with a cascade of herbal and mineral notes. – J.S.

This opens-up in an infectiously juicy manner... Lentil sprout, peach kernel, and almond oil add to the diversity of flavors already intimated on the nose in a superbly sustained, bell-clear and invigorating as well as surprisingly and delightfully buoyant finish. – D.S.

Minty green apple, jasmine and minerals on the enticing nose. Bright flavors of green apple and ripe citrus fruits are joined by stone fruits and minerals on the long finish. Has enough acidity to maintain clarity and cut. – I.D.
