POINTS

AUGUST 2017

A lifted, ethereal note of bitter almond suggests the beginnings of evolution. The palate...displays a streamlined concentrated core of flawless dryness and precise bundled freshness. This is taut, precise and sure to develop. The finish is lasting, refreshing and clean. – A.K.

SEPTEMBER 2015

This is an excellent pinot gris with pine nut, sliced dried mango, citrus and bitter almond character. Smoky. Full-bodied, spicy and long. A beauty. Very dry for pinot gris. – J.S.

FEBRUARY 2016

Supple yet quite bright in the mouth, showing good acid cut to the juicy flavors of ripe pear, baked apple and sweet spices. Finishes very dry and pure, with noteworthy persistence and an impression of high acidity...dry, food-friendly, very promising Alsace Pinot Gris. – I.D.

SEPTEMBER 2016

Well-knit flavors of apricot, yellow plum, lemon curd and paraffin are structured by a firm backbone of acidity in this finely balanced, medium-bodied white. Offers a savory, smoke-tinged finish. Drink now through 2024. –A.N.

JUNE 2017

The 2014 Pinot Gris Réserve offers a clear and aromatic bouquet of ripe and intense white fruits along with some white champignon aromas ...A very piquant and intense Pinot that is great to have with food thanks to its salinity and grip. –S.R.
