Finely knit and creamy, this medium-bodied Pinot Gris is dry and focused, with a subtle mesh of green plum, dried apricot, star anise and clover honey notes. An elegant version that should open up nicely. Lasting, minerally finish. –A.N.

The dryness and discipline of the poised flavors nonetheless allow the ripe, luscious pear fruit to glow and shine. Mouthfeel and texture are reminiscent of pear peel and bitter almond, and echo long after the last sip. – A.K.

This is tight and firm with dried fruits, spices and almond paste. Some smoke too. Full-bodied, round and delicious. Savory, umami finish. – J.S.

Pale yellow-green. Ripe but fresh aromas of yellow apple, lime and mirabelle. Dense, concentrated and classically dry in the mouth, boasting lovely purity to its apple and floral flavors. Finishes with serious stuffing and length. – I.D.
