AUGUST 2018

A touch of ripe Mirabelle plum joins the pear fruit on the nose. The resolutely dry palate holds them tight on a very concentrated, fresh but also earthy body. Taut and clean, this needs a little more time in bottle. The finish is whistle-clean. – A.K.

This wine's fresh-cut apple flavors have precision, its brisk clarity and purity building toward delicious richness, with a lanolin-like creamy note that brings to mind aged sheep's cheeses... A beautiful and vibrant expression of pinot gris. – T.T.
