TRIMBACH

“RÉSERVE PERSONNELLE” PINOT GRIS 2012

Alsace, France

APRIL 2015

Pristine aromas of white stone fruits and balsamic herbs. Rich and ripe but very fresh too, with lively acidity enlivening the orchard fruit and balsamic spice flavors and extending the finish... Basically dry, extremely precise and not at all heavy. The long aftertaste features notes of smoked beef, tropical fruits and flint. A knockout Pinot Gris.

MARCH 2018

Very complex aromas on the nose: not just the rich orchard fruits, but also meadowsweet, hay and lemon verbena hints. The extra age has paid great dividends in terms of aromatic nuance. Harmonious, sweet, full, supple, spicy and warm on the palate, and at perfect maturity now. To enjoy both on its own and with richer foods. – A.J.

OCTOBER 2015

The clear, ripe and rich nose is corresponding with the rich and mellow texture of this succulent and opulent wine. However, the sweetish fruit is counter-pointed by a classically piquant acidity which cuts through rich fruit like a knife. The finish of this firmly structured wine is long and salty and quite dry. – S.R.
