MAY 2016

A beautiful red with plum, currant and floral aromas and flavors. Medium body, very fine tannins and a long and preexistent finish. Such depth and subtlety. Harmonious. Drink now. – J.S.

DECEMBER 2015

This is always a Bordeaux blend... The idea was to show the potential of terroir through blending varieties and removing the strong varietal character from the wine. This 2011 has nice roundness and at the same time, seems to have a little more acidity than 2010... – L.G.

MARCH 2018

Toasty oak and savory cherry and plum aromas are meaty and calm. On the palate, this is linear and compact, with a beam of acidity that keeps things healthy... Spicy oak flavors blend nicely with tomato, herbal plum and red currant notes. Drink now through 2024. – M.S.
