...Quite stunning... a mix of white peaches, crushed apples, sweet florals and hints of lemon confit. Its textures are silky, cast across of feminine fame with a compelling richness to its ripe orchard fruits. Through it all, a buzzing of salty-minerals and zesty acids... slowly tapering off with a tinge of bitter citrus... Very nice. – E.G.

Enticingly delicate scents of spring blossom, Granny Smith apple and a whiff of crushed stone shape the nose. The medium-bodied palate shows finesse and freshness, offering ripe pear and honeydew alongside bright acidity. A flinty note signals the finish. – K.O.
