SEPTEMBER 2022

The richest yet also most balanced and complete of the Taub Family offerings... Vibrant blackberries and black cherries are beautifully framed by cedar and vanilla shadings, while the medium to full-bodied palate is velvety, with a long, lively finish. –J.C.

AUGUST 2022

Complex nose with a nice, fresh lift of herbs to the cassis, tobacco and cedary aromas. Some orange savoriness, too. Classy, fine oak. This is medium-to full-bodied cabernet sauvignon with very fine, dusty tannins that dissipate into the blackberry fruit. Very fluid and drinkable. Long and refined... – J.S.

Solidly built, with an iron spine and dusty edges providing the framework for a mix of red and black currant preserves, tobacco and savory details. Shows nice cut and drive on the finish, too... - J.M.
