AUGUST 2014

The depth of fruit in this barrel sample is impressive with layers of round tannins, roses and currants. Full body, savory fruit and a long and intense finish. Structured with length and beautiful depth. 85% cabernet sauvignon, 10% carmenere, and 5% syrah. Spent 18 months in barrel, mostly new oak. — J.S.

JUNE 2015

Sexy, oak-spiced dark berry and floral pastille scents are complemented by pipe tobacco and cedar. Smooth and velvety on the palate, offering sweet cherry compote and rose flavors that tighten up slowly with air. Shows very good clarity and energy on the finish, which features smooth tannins and a suave mocha quality. — J.R.

...A blend of cabernet sauvignon, syrah and carmenère from 70-year-old vines. The most striking thing about it is the sweetness of the texture, a smooth sensation that caresses the palate without any astringency or rough edges, surrounded by luscious fruit and spice. — P.T.
