CELLAR SELECTION

You'd expect a Bordeaux style blend owned by Eric de Rothschild to be pretty good as you won't be disappointed... It's a beautifully framed, stylish red that's much more than the sum of its parts. Subtle, balanced and ageworthy. – T.A.

Lots of blackcurrants and ripe berries with hints of roses follow through to a full body, firm and velvety tannins and a long and juicy finish. A rich and impressive red. Needs one to three years to open more. Try in 2020. – J.S.

A vibrant red, offering intense red cherry and red currant flavors that are well-structured, with notes of dried tarragon. Accents of Christmas pudding on the creamy finish. Cabernet Sauvignon, Carmenere and Syrah. – K.M.

Bordeaux elegance with Chilean exuberance... subtle and harmonious... Blackberries, cedar wood and pencil lead with some floral touches and a special brightness; Medium-bodied, reveals fine-grained tannins and integrated, focused flavors. – L.G.

Complex aromas of mocha, oak grain and chocolate boost scents of berry fruits and cassis. The jammy palate offers several layers of blackberry, chocolate and spice flavors. A steady finish with no peaks or valleys keeps this tasty number on path. – M.S.
