This elegant red is medium to full bodied, with soft, plush tannins. It features flavors of baked black cherry and dried raspberry, with savory accents of thyme and tobacco. A backbone of fresh, orange peel acidity keeps it lively and not too robust on the palate, driving minerally smoke and spice notes on the lingering finish... – A.N.

...There is a lot of ripeness here... with plenty of textural richness to boot. The wine finishes with prune and dark plum that are in line with this hot and dry vintage. The tannins and the mouthfeel are soft and supple. Go with a near or medium-term drinking window for this bottle. – M.L.

Dark and rich... notes of tobacco and sage... with silk textures and medium-bodied weight, as tart red berries and minerals saturate the senses... Roses and violets through the finale, and it leaves a coating of fine tannins and hints of dark chocolate to linger... Nicely done.– E.G.
