

JEAN-LUC COLOMBO

SAINT-PERAY "LA BELLE DE MAI" 2017

Rhône Valley, France

92
POINTS

 WINEENTHUSIAST MAGAZINE

MAY 2020

...This is a mouthwatering white with sunny apple and pear flavors. It's primary in fruit tones but quite generous, persisting long on swirls of caramel, cinnamon and smoke. Lovely now it should hold well through 2023. –A.I.

91
POINTS

 Wine Spectator

NOVEMBER 2018

Delicious lemon curd, creamed yellow apple and mirabelle plum flavors form the ripe, flattering core. Light heather and buttered brioche notes show on the finish. –J.M.

91
POINTS

 vinous

MAY 2020

...Taut and focused on entry and then more fleshy in the midpalate, offering concentrated pear and Meyer lemon flavors braced by an undercurrent of juicy acidity. Finishes very long and precise, with the floral and pear notes repeating. - J.R.

90
POINTS

 JAMES SUCKLING.COM

AUGUST 2018

Quite bright peaches with hints of candied lemon and gently mealy complexity. This is nice and fresh. The palate carries a sweet core of melon and pears. Nice, chalky edge to the finish. Drink now. – J.S.